CATCH THE FANTASY MOMENTUM
Welcome to the most comprehensive resource for and the official association of the fantasy sports and gaming industry. The Fantasy Sports & Gaming Association (FSGA) serves as the voice of the industry and this media kit is an extension of our more than 20 years of service.

The FSGA is the voice for over 59 million fantasy sports and gaming players in the United States and Canada, and for the companies that provide services, news, information and competition to support this growing industry. Founded in 1998, FSGA is the only dues-based national organization representing the interests of fantasy sports and gaming companies.

We welcome your interest in helping us grow and reporting on fantasy sports, in turn, helping to protect the interests of our players and our member companies. FSGA provides the tools and resources needed to expand upon your knowledge of fantasy sports and gaming. Connecting with FSGA means you’ve tapped into the power of an established community of successful fantasy sports and gaming entrepreneurs. You also have a platform to raise your voice and affect change within the fantasy sports and gaming business community.

For questions about research and press matters, or to learn about ways to participate in FSGA committees or conferences, please contact me at cmccoy@thefsga.org.

On behalf of the FSGA Board of Directors, thank you for choosing FSGA as the organization to represent your business interests.

ABOUT FSGA

The Fantasy Sports & Gaming Association (FSGA) was founded in 1998 to provide a forum for interaction between hundreds of existing and emerging companies in the unique, and quickly growing, fantasy sports industry.

From small local leagues managed with pencil and paper to automated web sites with real-time statistics. From snail mail expert fantasy information to web sites with injury and progress reports updated daily. The fantasy sports industry has changed considerably in the past 20 years and now, as the Fantasy Sports & Gaming Association (FSGA), we stands to represent all of the varied interests to advance the industry.

The FSGA represents more than 200 member companies in the industry with a market size reaching nearly 60 million fantasy sports and gaming players across North America. FSGA builds meaningful connections among the small, the large, the entrepreneurs, and the corporations as well as the visionaries, innovators, investors, advertisers, and sponsors.
